J. Atwell on the north, the lot of Mrs. C. E. Glover on the south and running back to an alley on the east, being the same property that was conveyed to W. E. Hoffman by Frank L. Wise and wife, by deed dated July 18th, 1901.

The said deed of trust provides that if default is made in the payment of any semi-annual installment of interest as it accrues and becomes due, or any part of such installment, it shall give the right to the holder of said deed to collect the same by an enforcement of said deed of trust, irrespective of whether said deed according to its tenor and effect be due or not.

The amount due and unpaid on said bond is the principal thereof of $2500, with interest from January 1st, 1905, and $450 of interest thereon from February 24th, 1905. This last named sum of money is unpaid interest on the said bond, and is covered by a bond of W. E. Hoffman, W. W. Smallwood and W. A. Bradford, dated August 2nd, 1904, and payable on demand, and this bond recites the fact that it is not accepted as payment of the interest, but as additional security therefor, and the deed of trust securing the principal as well as the interest, is to remain unexecuted and unimpaired as a security for said bond.

This advertisement of sale is made at the request of the parties in the said bond of $450. Mrs. S. Jannette T. Hoffman, the creditor therein secured is dead, and John Gaunt is her executor.

This is a most desirable and valuable piece of property. The First National Bank of Berryville occupies the corner room, and the said W. E. Hoffman, until recently, has occupied the other room on the first floor for a tobacco store. The building which may be used for residence purposes. The building is well constructed, very desirably located and is regarded as one of the best business stands in Berryville.
